

Extraction Shaft

This large hole goes up to below the road surface near the corner of Victoria Ave. and Pine St.

It was used as an access portal during blasting operations.

It would have been used like a mineshaft to extract blasted rock, to bring in construction materials, supplies and workers, and to pump out ground water.

This sign has been sponsored by Eastern Engineering Group Inc.

BrockvilleRailwayTunnel.com